Duty of Fair Presentation

The rules governing what information you must disclose to your insurers before the insurance policy is taken out have changed. This new requirement is called the 'Duty of Fair Presentation'

How to Comply?

To comply with the 'Duty of Fair Presentation', prior to the start of the Policy you must:

- a. Disclose "every material circumstance which the you/senior management knows or ought to know" (this can include disclosing the limits of the information you are able to provide); or
- b. "failing that, [provide] disclosure which gives the us/insurer sufficient information to put a prudent insurer on notice that it needs to make further enquiries for the purposes of revealing those material circumstances".

A material circumstance is one which "would influence the judgement of a prudent insurer in determining whether to take the risk and, if so, on what terms". If you fail to disclose a material circumstance that could invalidate this policy, which could result in your claim being rejected. If you are any doubt about what to disclose, or indeed whether to disclose something, please contact us immediately.

Data Protection Act 1998. It is understood by the Insured and/or the Insured Persons that any information provided to Leisureinsure LLP regarding the Insured and / or the Insured Person will be processed by Leisureinsure LLP, in compliance with the provisions of the Data Protection Act 1998, for the purpose of providing insurance and handling of claims, if any, which may necessitate providing such information to third parties.

I/we understand that:

- a. If any of the information above is incorrect I/we will notify Leisureinsure immediately
- b. It is my/our responsibility to ensure that Leisureinsure are aware of any reason why I/we cannot comply with the above
